

Position Name: Consumer Financial Services Regulatory Associate (CH/LA/NY/OC/PA/SF/DC)

Business Unit: Consumer Financial Services Regulatory and Litigation

Title: Associate

Office: Chicago, Los Angeles, New York, Orange County, Palo Alto, San Francisco or Washington, DC

Req #: 378-384

Brief Description:

Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, LLP is seeking a highly qualified associate with four to six years of consumer financial services regulatory experience to join our consumer financial services practice.

Ideal candidates will have substantial consumer financial services experience, including familiarity with federal and state consumer protection statutes and their implementing regulations (e.g., FDCPA, FCRA, TILA, EFTA, TCPA, GLBA, CAN-SPAM Act, state and federal UDAP/UDAAP laws). The position will be focused primarily on regulatory compliance matters, and may include some enforcement work and counseling clients on privacy and data security matters.

At Manatt, our consumer financial services practice represents a wide variety of clients, including banks, mortgage lenders and servicers, credit card issuers, auto finance companies, student lenders, small business lenders, specialty finance companies, institutional investors, and nonfinancial companies offering products and services subject to consumer financial protection laws, such as retailers, sports and entertainment companies, and telecommunication and satellite television service providers. A rapidly expanding part of our practice is advising emerging companies in the fintech space, including online lenders and mobile payment companies, regarding the application of legacy laws to their disruptive technologies.

Requirements:

- Four to six years of consumer financial services regulatory experience
- Outstanding academic credentials
- Excellent writing, research and communication skills
- Bar membership in good standing
