

Healthcare Associate, Los Angeles

Leading Los Angeles healthcare law firm seeks an associate attorney with 3+ years recent healthcare experience to focus on regulatory compliance work for healthcare and life science providers (hospital, physician groups, behavioral health providers, pharmacies, telehealth and other business entities). Knowledge of healthcare law and regulations is essential. Candidates should have experience drafting advisory memoranda, opinion letters, contracts, healthcare policies and procedures, as well as superior research, writing, communications, and negotiating skills. The ideal candidate will be a team player, eager to learn, have a keen interest in health and life sciences law, and have the ability to think critically, creatively and quickly distill complex information when guiding clients. Major law firm experience is preferred but not required. Corporate transactional experience and experience working on investigations and administrative proceedings are desirable. This is an opportunity to work alongside and be mentored by elite healthcare and life science lawyers. Must be licensed in California. Compensation and benefits will be based upon qualifications and healthcare specific experience. Please submit cover letter and resume in confidence to gmartin@nelsonhardiman.com and reference "Regulatory Associate". Thank you.
